

The Bergen Bugle

September 22 - 29, 2017

Staff Superstar ~Meet Mrs. Brady

by Sophia S. and Callen C.

Mrs. Brady is the assistant principal at Bergen Valley. Mrs. Brady has been teaching for 7 years. She was an instructional coach for three years and has been at Bergen Valley for two years. Mrs. Brady ran a business consulting in schools for three years. Mrs. Brady is married to her husband, Blaise. She has two children named Hunter and Teagan. Teagan is six and Hunter is three. Mrs. Brady has two step brothers and two stepsisters. She has one sister and one brother. Mrs. Brady's hobbies are baking, reading, hiking, snowshoeing, and making homemade lotion and body butter. She wanted to be an assistant principal because she is able to work with students. She cares about the school and she likes to work with Mrs. Miller. Mrs. Brady is a very fascinating and kind staff member at Bergen Valley and Bergen Meadow. Mrs. Brady surely is a staff superstar.

School News

by Teagan H. and Liam R.

Guess what's happening!

Bergen Valley's Wild West Book fair is finishing up in the Bergen Valley library. The book fair was held during Conference week from September 22nd -September 28th. The book fair is a fundraiser to help Bergen Valley's library buy new equipment and library books.

Also Bergen Valley field day is coming up on October 6th. Bergen Valley field day will be held on the field. It will be a day of fun and games for the whole school. And remember to wear good shoes (like tennis shoes) and bring your water. And that's what's coming up!

